

Waitlist Terms

Continuous | Queensland, Australia | Last updated 1 July 2026

Overview

The waitlist is used to manage interest in the Continuous Contour Rowing Unisuit and future Continuous releases.

First access

Waitlist members will be contacted first when stock and launch details are confirmed.

Availability

The first release is planned as a limited release. Continuous will confirm final availability, sizes and pickup/payment details before orders are finalised.

No payment before stock

Continuous does not plan to take payment before stock is physically available for the first release.

No automatic purchase obligation

Joining the waitlist does not automatically make someone a customer and does not require them to purchase. Continuous will contact waitlist members when stock is ready so they can confirm whether they want to proceed.

Order confirmation

Once a customer confirms an order after stock is ready and Continuous reserves that item for them, the order may be treated as locked in.

Price

Current intended price is $89.99 AUD. This is firm but may change if costs suddenly rise before launch. Any final price will be confirmed before an order is locked in.

Email updates

Waitlist members may receive product and launch updates. They can unsubscribe from marketing emails at any time.
